WE PRESENT...

THE GROWLER of 1950

Published By THE ANNUAL STAFF
of
THOMASVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
THOMASVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

FOREWORD

In this, our sixth edition of the Growler, we of the annual staff wish to thank our many friends for the invaluable aid they have rendered to us. We sincerely hope that this will become a book dear to everyone, and that in its pages you will find a chest full of joys. In looking back, may it serve as a link to your high school days.

DEDICATION

When we consider all that one man's done
To make our school the best that can be found,
Unselfishly has fame and honor won
For students, teachers, parents here around,
Who through his zest for living goodly life
Inspires us all to hobbies, happy hours,
Gives inspiration, comfort in our strife,
And makes us long to bring out hidden powers—
We realize more we owe than we can pay.
We bring our gratitude and thankful hearts,
And in our humble, small, but deep-felt way
Present a token which we hope imparts
A portion of our gratitude. In brief,
We dedicate the Grouler to our Chief—

MR. GEORGE H. ARNOLD

J. N. Hauss

For more than thirty years Mr. J. N. Hauss led in developing the Thomasville schools from a single frame building, housing a seven grade school, to a modern and efficient system of grammar and high schools. Some of those who knew him during those years may feel that a building other than a gymnasium might more appropriately have been named for him. It is true that he never particularly emphasized athletics or physical education, but on second thought one must realize that any building that contributes to the development in any way of the youth of Thomasville may happily bear Mr. Hauss' name. He has always been interested in the education of the whole individual and never over-emphasized any particular field.

Let us hope that the Hauss Gymnasium may long serve to promote the welfare of generations of Thomasville students. But Mr. Hauss is far more enduringly memorialized in the lives of hundreds of men and women in this town and elsewhere to whom he taught by precept, and especially by example, those qualities of character that a good athletic program promotes: integrity, sportsmanship, consideration of others, clean living, and self-control.

Long ago, when Mr. Hauss used to teach ninth grade English, he asked his students to memorize lines from Shakespeare that might well apply to him,

"His life was gentle, and the elements so mixed in him that nature might stand up and say to all the world 'This was a man!'"

SENIORS

Barbara Atwood

*"Batwood's" good
At this sport;
She's a star
On the basketball court.*

Dave Ballard

*A witty feller,
As you all know, is Dave.
Just give him a lead
And he'll make you rave.*

Maxine Beck

*You'll always find her
Merry and gay.
She'll make you laugh
With the things she'll say.*

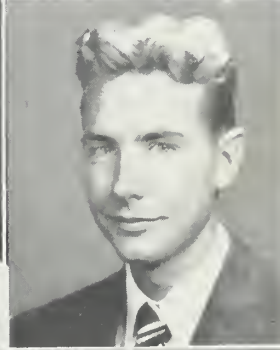

Nancy Beck

*A real swell gal
Is Nancy Beck.
We think of her
A lot, by beck.*

Wanda Beck

*"Tootie's" a beauty
And nice as can be.
An all-round gal
You'll find her to be.*

L. E. Black

*"Ely's" a whiz in Chemistry,
And he really gets around
Especially with the gals
Down in Johnsonstown.*

Sarah Jane Black

*Our wittiest girl
Keeps us in stitches.
She tells a joke
And we laugh like witches.*

Jackie Beswell

*Jackie's a girl
Who loves to skate.
She's really one person
Who is hard to hate.*

Evelyn Branch

*To be a secretary
Is her desire.
Of being nice
She does not tire.*

Eddie Branson

*Here is a boy
Whom an office has got.
It and Jeanette
Keep him half shot.*

SENIORS

Janie Brinkley

*One good sport
Is "Little Brink";
Our best dancer
We all think.*

Alice Bryant

*Alice's hair is Lovely and black,
Her air is pleasant;
She's sweet, in fact.*

Carmelita Burleson

*She appears to be
The quiet kind,
And if you tell her so
She really won't mind.*

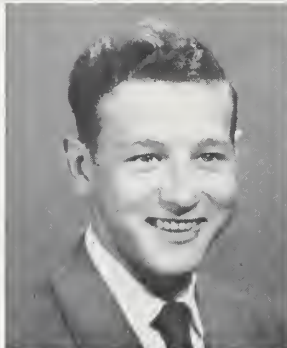

J. D. Burton

*J. D.'s a boy
With a little, wry smile,
When you talk to him,
You laugh all the while.*

Robert Cagle

*Jane is Bud's gal
And always will be,
If it's all right with him,
It's all right with me.*

Mildred Coggins

*"Cotton's" a gal
Who really is bep.
She's a feminine cage-star,
And has plenty pep.*

Peggy Coggins

*A good cheerleader
This femme is.
At doing the yells
She's really a whiz.*

Nancy Cranford

*This here gal is Really a cutie.
"Nan" makes many puns
And never is snooty.*

Ann Davis

*By right her voice
May always be
The way she'll make
Her mon-ey.*

Stanton Davis

*"Stinky's" his name.
It he doesn't deserve
'Cause he doesn't appeal
To the smelling nerve.*

SENIORS

Jadie Lee Durham

*"Jake" has interests
In lots of things,
He has a good time
And seldom complains.*

Mary Elgin

*Her name is Elgin
So she keeps up with the times.
And I can't think
Of anything else that rhymes.*

Jeanette Elliott

*This tall blonde
Is usually seen with Eddie.
To do you a favor
She's always ready.*

Jean Gilliam

*"Stel" is "B. M."
Of our yearbook.
She plays basketball
And is a good cook.*

Elizabeth Gordy

*"Lib's" a gal with Eyes and coiffure;
So all the men
She knows how to lure.*

Nancy Gray

*Her knowledge is broad;
"Steamboat" likes her books,
too.
She seldom makes errors
Which she must rue.*

Peggy Gray

*Now here is a girl
Who studies francais.
She'll be a success
In the world someday.*

Eva Mae Green

*Her name is Green,
But that's not so
'Cause all her hair
Is black, you know.*

Julius Green

*This "hubba-hubba" is the Strong, silent type,
But when "Grass" jests
You'll laugh all right!*

Doris Harris

*Doris is one of Those office girls.
When she's on duty
The work really whirls.*

SENIORS

Betty Jean Hartsell

*Here is a gal
W'ho really is sweet.
She has helped make
Our GROW'LER so neat.*

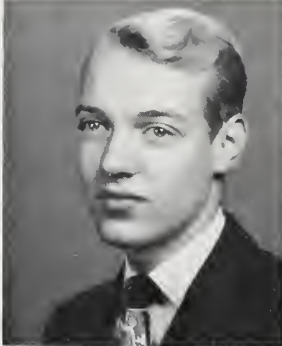

Ruby Hauser

*Our most intellectual Girl she is.
She's a likeable gal
And minds her own biz.*

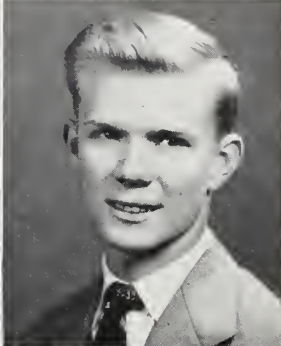

William H. Hethcock

*Il aime le français
Et l'anglais aussi.
Mais l'histoire, il dit—
"Qu'est-ce que c'est que ceci?"*

John Hiatt

*John is short
And he's a blonde.
Of this friend
We're very fond.*

Robert Hill

*Robert has caught
The camera bug.
He'll take a picture
Of any ol' mug.*

Don Holland

*He's a good dancer
And a member of the band.
At the art of cheering
He's an old hand.*

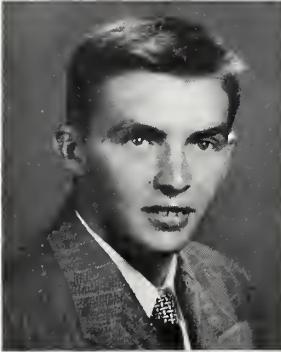

Jcann Hoyle

*Here's a gal
W'ho musically inclines.
Her future is brighter
Than Moonbeam McSwine's.*

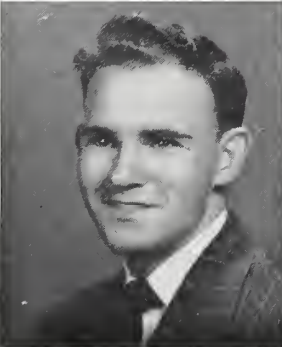

Charles Huffman

*Playing football or basketball—
At either he's at ease.
He's easy to get along with,
And not hard to please.*

Carl Hunt

*Here's a boy
You may not know
Because, you see,
He takes D. O.*

Betty Jones

*"Jonsey" knows what to say
On every occasion.
She possesses a power
Of convincing persuasion.*

SENIORS

Paul Ed Jones

*He's our best looking boy;
He's the keeper of the store;
He's good at basketball—
W'bo could ask for any more?*

Bill Kanoy

*If in a theatre
It's Bill you meet,
Ask him politely
And he'll show you a seat.*

Bill Kindley

*At dancing he's tops,
'Never gets his fill;
A good all round guy,
That's "Big Bad Bill."*

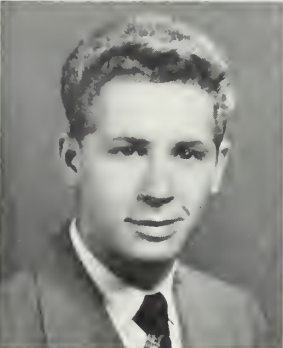

Margaret Kinney

*Our cheerleaders are Always of great fame.
Of this girl
We have no shame.*

Arthur Lee Lambeth

*Really good-natured
Is our pal "Ott."
It's that "Church Street spirit"
That he's always got.*

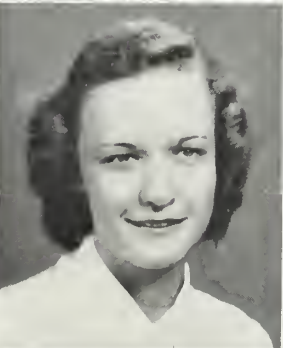

Anabel Lammonds

*This friend of ours
May have little to say,
But we're all proud
Of her anyway.*

Lena Mae Laws

*She's fond of math
For her life is sunny,
She capably handles
The GROW'LER'S money.*

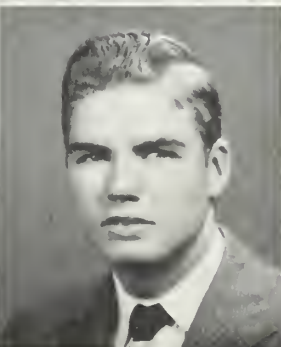

Sara Leek

*This pretty blonde
Has a Southern drawl;
W'ben you meet Saree
She'll say, "Hi, y'all!"*

Bobby Loftin

*Now here is a boy
W'bo plays in the band.
If you're ever in need,
He'll give you a hand.*

Bobby Gene Loftin

*"Laud's" good natured
And lots of fun.
He's Sheriff's chief deputy—
Old "One-Gun."*

SENIORS

Howard Lookabil

*This here boy
Has plenty of muscles.
He appears to be slow,
But sometimes he bustles.*

Dorothy Ludwick

*She works in the library
As Mrs. O.'s assistant.
She helps all the Freshmen
Who are so insistent.*

Charles Lyndon

*He's the most quiet
Of all the boys.
But it's the empty wagon
That makes the most noise.*

Leon Lyndon

*Hunting is the hobby
Of this up-and-coming lad.
He wants to be a farmer;
His future is not sad.*

Ruth McCarson

*This our friend
Is not a sack,
She goes around
With dear old Mack.*

Jackie McCulloch

*This here cage star
Has a sense of humour.
In his head there's
No room for roumer.*

Mack McCulloch

*Here is a boy who would
Be in a mess
Should he wake up one day
And find himself "Ruth"less.*

Betty McSwain

*A very cute girl
Is Betty Mac.
She's on the ball
And sharp as a tack.*

Bobby May

*Miss J.'s room pres
Drives 'round in a jeep.
When others complain
He makes nary a peep.*

Doris Maney

*"Doris" a gal
Who is fond of dogs.
Her thinking is clear;
She's never in fogs.*

SENIORS

Betty Carol Myers

*Here's a friend
W'hom we like, you see.
She likes to skate
Out at Uni-ty.*

Robert Myers

*From out of the past
His nickname arose.
"Rabbit" they call him;
though
He can't wiggle his nose.*

Pauline Nelson

*A wise old gal
Is our friend Polly,
She never frowns
And is always jolly.*

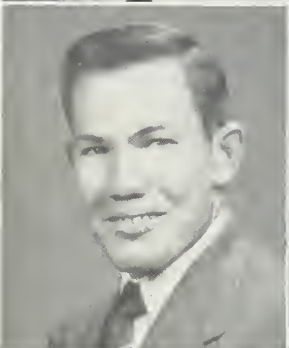

Helen Payne

*Helen's the one who's
Our class secretary.
She's cute and quiet
But always merry.*

Bobby Radford

*This is a boy
W'ho's nickname's Tony.
If he has any curls
Then they're not a phony.*

Fermon Ragan

*The art of painting
Is foremost in his mind.
He'll go out with a paint brush
And leave his lessons behind.*

Franklin Rutledge

*Franklin's our friend
W'hom we call "Flattop."
He puts books on his head.
And they never drop.*

William Saunders

*Bill is a vet
W'hom we all admire.
He is a good worker
W'hom no one will fire.*

Dale Sechriest

*Dale is showman
Of his typing class.
His lovely songs
Will charm any lass.*

Merle Dean Sherrill

*"Murl Shurl's" the one
W'ho is our class poet.
She is really quite smart,
And we all know it.*

SENIORS

Joyce Sloop

*This lovely lass is Miss Thomasville High School.
A fact quite evident
To any old fool.*

Betty Smith

*This cute girl
Knows how to debate.
A point for the negative
She hurries to relate.*

Peggy Smith

*Another gal on
The debating team.
The affirmative holds her
In high esteem.*

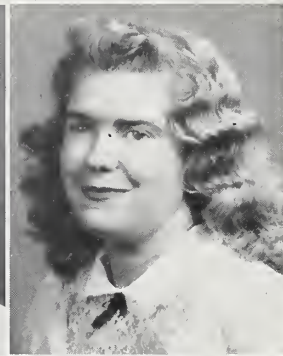

Ann Snyder

*Ann is always Seen with Lena Pearl.
She in truth
Is a very fine girl.*

Lena Pearl Stout

*You lift your receiver,
The operator says, "Hello."
It may be Lena Pearl;
She works there, you know.*

Charlotte Sullivan

*Not too serious,
Not too gay;
But she's a jolly good gal
In most every way.*

Jean Carol Sullivan

*Jean's willing to help
In her good-natured way.
Dependable always
With not much to say.*

Louise Sullivan

*Historian of our class
Is this girl Louise.
We're all crazy 'bout her
And that's no wheeze.*

Betty Ann Surratt

*She never has reason
To apologize.
To have this quality
She must be wise.*

Donald Surratt

*"Sarky's" a boy
Who has "filles" in a whirl,
But he especially attracts
One special girl.*

SENIORS

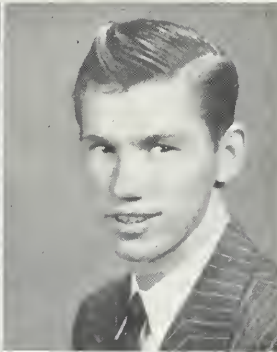

Jane Tysinger

*Here's a blonde
Who's certainly no dud.
We think she's swell
And so does Bud.*

Johnny Wallace

*Here's a swell guy
Whom you really should know.
If you meet him downtown,
He'll yell out, "Hello!"*

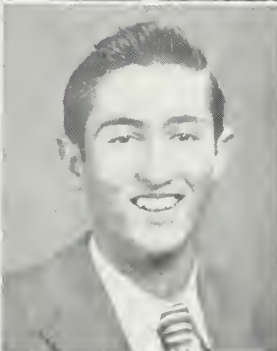

J. B. Walser

*Known to all his friends
As "Jo Bo."
You'll find him anytime
At Stinson's Texaco.*

Bob Ward

*"Sheriff" plays sports;
He's the real McCoy.
In his own words,
"Knock it off, boy."*

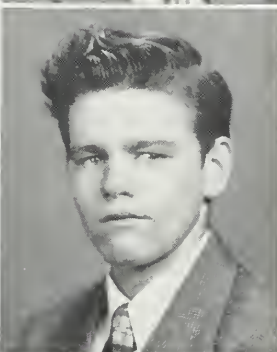

Jim Ward

*Here is a boy
Who's well-dressed and handsome,
All the girls want
To hold him for ransom.*

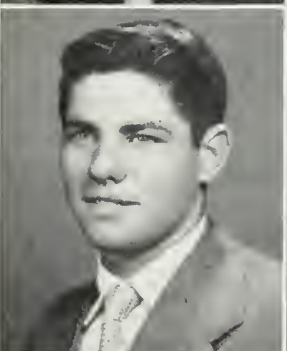

Jimmie Warren

*He likes his English;
They call him "Moe."
He didn't want to study
So he took D. O.*

Gene Wells

*His teammates voted him
"Best All-Round,"
But when you mention it,
He makes nary a sound.*

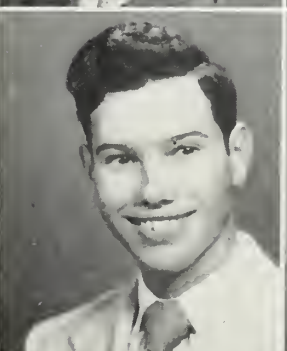

Ann Wilder

*Pretty and clever
And very neat;
To be her friend
Is a special treat*

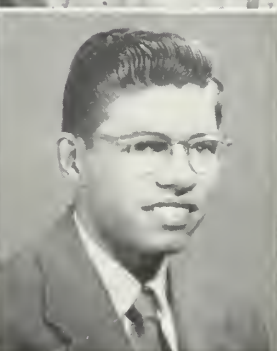

Bobby Wilder

*Bobby's a boy
Who has curly hair,
A pleasing smile,
And a pleasant air.*

Raymond Williams

*Raymond, we think,
Is a pretty nice guy.
He makes all the girls
Heave a big sigh.*

SENIORS

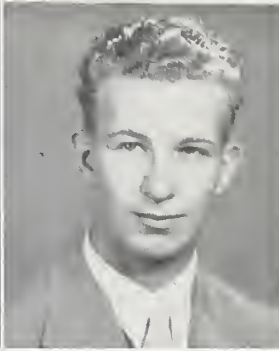

Betty Wilson

*This bashful gal,
As we have said,
Has lovely locks
Upon her head.*

Bobby Wilson

*Handsome, original,
And a very nice lad.
Friends galore
He has always had.*

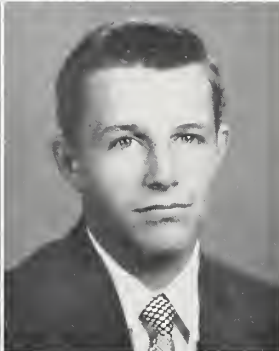

Homer Wilson

*He'll help you out
There and back.
He brings honor
To Red and Black.*

Bobby Workman

*"W'orkee's" a boy
Who's very polite.
His winning smile
Is always in sight.*

Donald Yates

*A quiet boy
With a pleasant smile;
His temper is calm,
And his friendship's worthwhile.*

Pat Younts

*Here's a gal
Who's really fast.
It took but three years
To get her past.*

FAREWELL TO YOU

To you, dear teachers and friends,
We pause and bid farewell.
We're reluctant to say good-bye so soon—
But with your help we cannot fail.

To our teachers we wish to leave
Our thanks and appreciation.
Thanks for lending a helping hand
When we needed your cooperation.

To our dear friends we leave
Fond memories of days gone by.
And as we are reminiscing,
We think back with a wistful sigh.

May the strains of our Alma Mater
Blend a farewell song in our heart.
For this song we will always remember
And cherish as we depart.

So in this year of 1950,
We Seniors bid you farewell.
"Great heights are attained by small deeds"
May this our motto ever before you dwell.

CLASS HISTORY

Although a few of us had had a taste of high school in the eighth grade, for most of us changing classes was a new and exciting experience. As our president for this year we elected Julius Green.

Becoming sophomores at last we now felt very important. Our activities this year included a very successful class party. Howard Lookabill was chosen as our president.

Our junior year was a very busy and enjoyable one. We now began to take a decided part in the activities of our school. This year we were joined by the juniors from Mills Home, who have added a great deal to our class. Paul Smith, Robert Cagle, Peggy Smith, and Nancy Cranford were chosen as our officers.

A few of the high spots this year were receiving our class rings, the Junior Magazine Drive, and the Junior-Senior Prom. We are very proud of the fact that we were the first class to give a prom instead of the traditional banquet. The Dutch theme carried out helped in making the evening a great success.

Wanda Beck, who received the honor of being crowned "Miss Thomasville High School," was the pride of our class.

We entered our last year enthusiastically but with a slight feeling of regret. Bill Hethcock was elected as our supreme officer. Other officers were Julius Green, Vice-President; Helen Payne, Secretary; and Ruby Hauser, Treasurer.

One of the most exciting events of this year was winning a football game with Lexington. This had not been done since 1942.

Our time was taken up with elections, Senior Week, the Junior-Senior Prom, the Senior Play, and finally, Commencement.

We sincerely believe that our class is the best yet to graduate from Thomasville High School, and we extend to the future seniors a challenge to make our alma mater an even greater school.

To the faculty we express our deepest appreciation for their worthy efforts, many of which, we realize, were above and beyond their duty. We truly think our faculty is the best to be found anywhere.

With our high school career coming to an end, we now look to the future with high hopes. May we all achieve the highest success in anything we undertake.

CLASS PROPHECY OF 1950

Thomasville

North Carolina

November 30, 1949

Dear Tootie,

How are you liking New York these days? You must be very busy because I haven't heard from you in a long time.

I received the latest dope of our class of '50 and thought you might be interested in it.

Here goes—

Mr. and Mrs. Mack McCulloch (the latter is the former Ruth McCarson) own a dairy farm in eastern North Carolina.

The former Joyce Sloop married the coach of Fair Grove High School.

Those coaching football are Gene Wells, Bobby Workman, Bill Kindley, Johnny Wallace, Bob May, and Arthur Lambeth.

Father of a large family, William Saunders is a superintendent at Thomasville Chair Company.

Praised for her writing of stories for children, we are very proud of Jean Carroll Sullivan, who lives in New York City.

If you are in need of groceries at any time when you get home, go to Sechriest Super Market, which is under the management of Dale Sechriest.

Those from our class in the teaching field are Lena Mae Laws, who is teaching mathematics in Durham, North Carolina; Bill Hethcock, who is a French Professor at the University of North Carolina; and Sara Leek, an English teacher in Montgomery, Alabama.

Those from our class in the field of nursing are Betty Ann Surratt, Peggy Gray, Ruby Hauser, Peggy Coggins, and Anabel Lamonds.

Doris Maney is chief X-ray technician at the Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem.

Several of our classmates are married. Charles Huffman and Pauline Nelson were wed soon after their graduation from high school. Frances "Pat" Younts is now happily married to an earlier graduate of T. H. S., Robert Cagle, who married the former Jane Tysinger, is the new owner of the West End Store.

Paul Ed Jones is playing professional baseball with the Yankees.

Julius Green, Jr., who is president of the Security Life and Trust Insurance Company, is very proud of his faithful secretary, the former Betty McSwain.

Do you remember Joann Hoyle? She is a French Opera singer.

I saw "Cotton" Coggins the other day and she is an assistant to a dentist in Charlotte.

John Hiatt and Betty Carol Myers are both associated with Hudson-Belk's Department Store. John is a buyer for the men's department and Betty Carol is in charge of the piece goods department.

Those from our class in the business field are Helen Payne, Murle Dean Sherrill, Peggy Smith, Louise Sullivan, Ann Wilder, Doris Harris, and Alice Bryant.

Although we went to a city school, we also have some boys from our class who are farmers. Homer Wilson and Bobby Radford are in charge of the Mills Home farm. Leon Lyndon, a tobacco farmer, and Robert Myers, a cotton growing farmer, own their farms which are not too far from Thomasville.

Next time you come home plan to have your picture taken at "Hill's Studio," which is under the management of Robert Hill.

Our friend Jackie McCulloch is an officer in the United States Navy.

The former Stinson's Esso Station is now owned and operated by J. B. Walser and Bobby Wilder.

CLASS PROPHECY OF 1950

Carl Hunt, superintendent of the Ragan Knitting Mills, has James Warren, Raymond Williams, and Donald Yates as his foremen.

Our old schoolmates who are making a living coaching basketball are "Sheriff" Ward, Betty Smith, Bobby Gene Loftin, Charles Lyndon, and Jean Gilliam. Coach of the Denton girls' varsity basketball team, Barbara Atwood has produced some very good teams thus far.

Ann Snyder and Lena Stout are operating the long-distance switchboards at the North State Telephone Co.

Donald "Sarky" Surratt, known as our 1950 T. H. S. glamour boy, has his own upholstering business in Washington, D. C.

Our old friend Bobby J. Loftin is the band director in Senior High School at Richmond, Virginia.

Do you ever see Dorothy Ludwick, Ann Davis, or Margaret Kinney, who with you represent our class in the field of modeling?

Betty Jones is the Society Editor of the Greensboro Daily News.

Manager of the Palace Theatre, Bill Kanoy, has remodeled the theatre since you were home.

The former Jane Brinkley, who married a wealthy University of North Carolina graduate, has nothing to do but give orders to her servants.

Fermon Ragan and Jim Ward are co-owners of the Men's Clothing Store in High Point.

Howard Lookabill is the Oldsmobile dealer in Thomasville.

Franklin Rutledge is working at Hill's Hosiery Mill.

Our old pal Betty Wilson is working in the office at the Davidson Laundry.

Eddie Branson, who married the former Jeanette Elliott, is owner of Branson's Esso Station.

Our friends, Mary Elgin, Elizabeth Gordy, Maxine Beck, Eva Mae Green, and Evelyn Branch are housewives.

Working as an interior decorator, Nancy Cranford likes her work very much.

Nancy Beck is the secretary for a well-known doctor in Durham, Don Holland.

The former Nancy Gray may be found in the office of Gray Concrete Pipe Company on Randolph Street most any time during the day.

Employed by the Thomasville City School System, Betty Jean Hartsell is the bookkeeper at Main Street School, our old Alma Mater.

Jackie Boswell and Carmalita Burleson are both employed in Chicago.

Dave Ballard is making his present home on Hinkle Street.

Employed away from T'ville caused J. D. Burton, L. E. Black, Jadie Lee Durham, and Stanton "Stinky" Davis to become strangers around this part of the country.

Joe Strider, a local lawyer, has as his private secretary, Charlotte Sullivan.

Oh my goodness! It's past the kids' bedtime.

Hoping to see you Christmas, I am

Your dear friend,

SARAH JANE BLACK

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the members of the graduating class of 1950, being of sound bodies and of slightly under par minds (due to the merciless assignments of the faculty during our four-year stay in high school) do, on this the 30th day of May 1950, declare this document to be our last will and testament. Although we shall take from this school more than we could possibly leave it, it is our privilege to leave behind a few remembrances. We, therefore, do will and bequeath all property, both real and personal, owned by us as follows:

ARTICLE I

To our Alma Mater, we leave our cherished thoughts and never-ending loyalty. May we live up to the standards for which you stand.

ARTICLE II

We leave to our efficient faculty and conscientious principal, our gratitude for the patience that they have shown us.

ARTICLE III

To our underclassmen, we will our school spirit and pride in all that our school stands for. To the rising senior class, we leave our swell times at the senior prom and all the wonderful parties.

The individuals of the graduating class of '50 do hereby leave the following things:

I, John Hiatt, do will my shy good manners around girls to Al Boyles, since he certainly needs them.

I, Dave Ballard, do hereby will my wit and ability always to have a good time to Joe Pittman.

I, Betty Wilson, do hereby leave my swell times in high school to my sister, Jeanette. To Alma Joyce Pierce, I will my ambition to become a nurse.

Charles Huffman wills his ability to pull jokes on "Rough-House" Kindley to Ernest

Byerly in hopes that he can pull better and funnier ones. He also wills his size 12's to anyone who has the feet to go in them.

I, Franklin "Flattop" Rutledge, do will my basketball skill to Darr Shealy. I also leave my nickname (Flattop) to Mr. Lawrence Page.

I, Howard Lookabill, do hereby will my nickname "Likerstill" to anyone who merits the name.

I, Bill Hethcock, do will my strong love for French to Jimmy Yokely and Jerry Black hoping that they will have as much fun in second year as I have had.

We, Alice Bryant and Louise Sullivan, do hereby will our ability to hold the important positions as Mr. and Mrs. Lowdermilk's "handymen" to anyone who thinks he has energy enough to hold it down.

I, Ruth McC Carson, do will and bequeath to Virginia Williams the task of being the "Saturday night eyebrow plucker" at the Huffman Building.

I, Evelyn Branch, do will and bequeath to my brother, Edgar, my ability to cook. Also to Vannie Downey, I will my favorite pastime, writing letters to that certain soldier.

Mary Elgin wills the honor of keeping up the family correspondence to Bertha Poole and Moley Maultsby.

I, Mr. Bobby "Sheriff" Ward, will to Miss Ava Alliene Hinkle all my merry times at the Belvedere Plantation Club. I also give to Mr. Earnest Byerly all my Kasco dog food, because I know he will be dogging on the football field next year, as usual.

I, Pauline Nelson, do will and bequeath to Edna Elgin my position on the basketball team, provided she works hard for it; and to Leonard Kornegay, I will the first chair in the trombone section.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Charles Lyndon wills his title as most bashful boy in the senior class to Guy Melton.

I, Jimmy Ward, do hereby leave my super-light A-Model to Betty Ann Tysinger and my brother, Tommy. In years to come, I hope you get as much fun out of pushing it as I have.

I, Maxine Beck, do hereby will to Ann Murphy my love for the name Paul, in hopes that she likes the name as much as I do.

Bobby Wilson leaves his senior privileges and seat in Mr. Page's D. O. class to any underclassmen capable of passing through Miss Johnson's English class.

I, Raymond (Willie) Williams, do hereby will my homeroom seat to anyone who likes to sit in the confound thing. I leave my good times and pencil sharpener in Miss Dixon's room to Johnny Prevo and Donald Hill.

I, Arthur (Ott) Lambeth, do hereby will my position on the football team to Dale McDonald, hoping that he will be able to play the position of tackle as well as I. I leave my blond and curly hair to Charles Dickens.

I, Ferman Ragan, do give my by-word "pot-head" to Tommy Ward, and my seat with my name on it to Martha Kanoy.

I, Doris Maney, do leave to my "big sister," Dorothy Maney, my ability to get to school on time, and be late only to sixth period class. To Carol Jean Gordy, I leave my place as "chief cook" in the Mills Home Infirmary kitchen.

I, L. E. (Eli) Black, do leave to David Long my shy technique with the women.

I, Nancy Cranford, will my title as best-dressed to Carol McMahon, who "never has a thing to wear". To Al Boyles, I bequeath my volume of Emily Post. I also will my profile to Betty "no-nose" Tysinger.

I, Peggy Gray, do bequeath to my sister, Betty, my bed, closest place at the table, and top drawer. If you want none of these you may have my place on the basketball team (keeping the bench warm at least two-thirds of the game). I leave to Horace Broome the privilege of winning the imitation contest on Halloween, all by himself.

I, Jane Tysinger, do will and bequeath my ability to be a true-love to Carol McMahon.

I, Robert Cagle, do hereby will my seat in D. O. class to anyone who is lucky enough to get it.

I, Betty Smith, do hereby will my position on the basketball team to any girl who thinks that she will be able to warm the bench as well as I.

I, Dot Ludwick, do hereby will my "seven-teen" children (at Miles Durhame Nursery) to Edna Davis. Don't be too hard on them, Edna.

Leon Lyndon wills his good times in T. H. S. to his sister, Luna Gray Lyndon. He also wills his hunting ability to Mr. G. M. Eargle and Mr. John Lowdermilk.

I, Anabel Lamonds, do leave to my little sister, Irene, the honor of receiving all of the mail from home in her name.

Joyce Sloop leaves her position on the basketball team to Hazel Overcash.

I, Bobby Workman, will my end position on the football team to Buddy Cranford and my ability to flirt with the girls to Bill Connell.

Lena Stout and Betty Carol Myers leave their love of D. O. to next year's D. O. girls.

I, Charlotte Sullivan, do hereby will my nickname "Blondie" to Jean McCarn.

Bobby "Laud" Loftin wills his ability to dress quickly for football practice to Edward Huffman. He leaves his pass catching ability to Paul Breedlove.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Margaret Kinney, do hereby will my position as a cheerleader to Alma Joyce Pierce and my seat in Miss Welch's geometry class to any student with plenty of patience and time.

I, Robert Myers, do hereby will my twin nicknames "Rabbit" and "Hare" to anyone who can stand them.

Dale Sechriest leaves his ability to make excellent on English to Donald, Paul, Larry, and Roy.

I, Sara Leek, do hereby will mah suthun drawl to the po' ole soul who can tak all all kiddin' and still be able to smile. To all underclassmen, I leave Thomasville High School, complete with a wonderful faculty, junior-senior proms, football games, and Twirp seasons, hoping they will have as much fun as I've had.

Helen Payne bequeaths to Edna Elgin her ability to be where work ain't. She also wills her position as bookkeeper for the basketball team to Bertha Poole.

Stanton Davis leaves his nickname "Stinky" to all the faculty that calls him by this name.

I, Mildred Coggins, do hereby will my nickname "Cotton" to Peggy Hartsell in hopes that she will live up to it.

Barbara Atwood leaves her ability to get to school at least one-half minute before the tardy bell to anyone who gets up as late as she does.

I, Elizabeth Ann Gordy, do will and bequeath to Carol Jean Gordy my ability to cook. Remember Sis, when the recipe calls for a level teaspoon of salt; it doesn't mean elevan.

I, Carmelita Burleson, do will and bequeath to Bertha Poole the privilege of entertaining my little brother once a month. Don't forget to stay away from that dangerous road at the Mitchell.

I, Betty McSwain, do will to "Rosie" Jarrett my wonderful times in high school. I bequeath to Guy Melton my five feet and two inches. To "Cody", I regretfully return his many possessions that I have borrowed. Also, to Betty Warner, I will my ability to blush at Paul Ed's jokes.

I, Sara Black, do hereby will my nickname, "Tuffy" to anyone who thinks they can live up to the name.

Jackie Boswell wills her love for Bethesda, Maryland and white caps to Blanche Reddick.

I, Betty Jean Hartsell, leave my good times working in Mr. Horton's office to Anne Murphy.

I, Peggy Coggins, do hereby will my ability to hold a man to Martha Jane Kanoy; and to Betty Ann Wright, I leave my position on the cheering squad.

I, Lena Stout, do hereby will my love of Miss Neece's second year French class to Catherine Prince.

I, Betty Jones, do hereby bequeath to Doris Ann Jones my ability to get near the front of the lunch line. To Diana Jones, I leave my love of dramatics, hoping that she will enjoy it as much as I have.

I, "Tootie" Beck, do hereby will my sun lamp to Nell Newby in hopes that she will know how to use it.

I, Mack McCulloch, do will and bequeath to Ray Mooney my good humor.

I, Robert Hill, leave to my brother, Graham, my charming personality and my ability to win Mrs. Oliver's affections. To Miss Dixon, I leave my sense of humor.

Homer Wilson leaves Dewey Phelps his seat in Miss Johnson's English class.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Doris Ann Harris, leave my third period in Mr. Horton's office to anyone who has good health, and strong feet, so they may be able to run from the office to Mrs. Lowdermilk's room every five minutes of the period.

Nancy Beck wills to Barbara Stevens her love for the name of Joe. She also wills to Carolyn Kennedy her job as secretary to the Bible Club.

I, Bobby May, leave my ability to make Ex's on my report card to William Palmer. I leave my fullback position to anyone who has more nerve than sense.

I, Lena Laws, will my ability to type to Carol McMahon.

I, Merle Dean Sherrill, hereby will my nickname, "Blondie", to Daney Melton and my part-time job in Rose's 5 & 10c Store to Janet Smith. Also, being of sound (?) mind, I leave my ability to make excellent on shorthand to Joyce Flowers.

I, Ann Davis, will my steady nerve to all of next year's bookkeeping students.

I, Bill Kindley, do hereby will my size and nickname "Rough-house" to Bobby Cody, who deserves that name more than I do. I will my ability to sing ? in the dressing room to Norman Crews and Donnie Cranford.

I, Jeanette Elliott, do will my seat on the basketball bench to Peggy Hartsell.

Eddie Branson wills his position as president of the Student Council to whoever is man enough to take it.

I, Eugene Wells, do hereby will to Ed Huffman (214½) my position as guard on the football team.

I, Paul Ed Jones, leave my ability to flirt with the girls to Doyt Johnson. I leave my corny jokes to Bob Johnson.

I, Nancy Gray, do bestow my handwriting upon Miss Bain Johnson and all other admirers of it. (joke) I also will my ability to arrive at school one minute before the tardy bell rings to my little sister, Ruth, who is going to need something to get her to school on time when I am not here. I leave a box of vitamin tablets, a box of aspirin tablets, a pair of track shoes, an ever-enduring pencil, and a padded cell to all aspiring journalists, knowing from experience that they will need them.

Bobby Wilder wills his English book and Mr. Paige's jokes to Red Wilson.

I, Jane Brinkley, do hereby will my position as chief cheerleader to Charlesanna Skeen.

I, Julius Green, do leave to Guy Melton my beat-up nose in hopes that he takes better care of it during football season than I did.

I, Jean Gilliam, do leave my pet peeve, Judy Hix, to Ann Murphy and Catherine Prince; and my ability to do trigonometry to Miss Laura Neece, in hopes that she will someday be able to count to twenty without taking off her shoes.
